

Safari Books Online now available in Luxembourg

Safari Books Online provides access to more than 32.000 digital books and more than 3.000 videos on topics ranging from programming to IT networking to project management to graphic design to business strategy.

Originally started in 2001 by O'Reilly Media and Pearson Education, the Safari Online Library has grown to over 100 publishing partners, including over 85% of the world's top technology publishers.

How do I get access to Safari Books Online?

Access is available from anywhere, including mobile. All you need is a valid library card of the National Library of Luxembourg, University of Luxembourg or the public research centers LIST and LIH. All Safari content can be found via the search engine www.a-z.lu of the bibnet.lu library network. Access is managed by the Consortium Luxembourg through the National Library of Luxembourg.

Tablet and Smartphone Access

Please use the Mobile Safari website
<http://m.proquest.safaribooksonline.com.proxy.bnl.lu/>

Please note: The mobile apps Safari Queue and Safari To Go are not compatible with our library subscription.

Laptop/PC Access
