The Observatoire de la Compétitivité and STATEC are pleased to invite you to the book launch

DO SMALL STATES FARE BETTER IN THE EUROPEAN UNION?

by professor Lino Briguglio

Thursday, 30th of June, 2016, at 2.30 pm

Cercle Cité, Auditorium Henri Beck
2, rue du Génistre
L-2012 Luxembourg

Lino Briguglio, Economics Professor at the University of Malta, is the editor of an important book on small states in the European Union, which will be published very soon by Routledge.

In his talk, Professor Briguglio will present the new book “Small States and the European Union: Economic Perspectives” and discuss the intense research activity on small economies.

He will give a fresh look at the relative performance of the Luxembourg economy.

Professor Briguglio directs the Islands and Small States Institute of the University of Malta and is the author of a large number of publications in various fields.
